

Ambassadors

All Chicago's Ambassadors play an active role expanding our network of friends and donors in order to ensure that everyone in Chicago has a stable and secure home.

Ambassador Benefits:

- Make a significant impact on a social issue you care about without having to attend meetings!
- Expand your personal and professional network.
- Recognition as an Ambassador at events and in publications like the annual report.
- Special CEO briefings.
- Invitations to networking opportunities with other Ambassadors.

Suggested Ambassador Activities:

- Commit to serving as an Ambassador for a two-year term (estimated time commitment: 2 hours per month).
- Meet with Development Committee or staff members for a one-hour All Chicago orientation.
- Make an annual financial contribution to All Chicago.
- Actively promote and invite your network to our Handbags for Homes (June) and Breakfast with the Mayor (October) events using email invitations, social media, and follow up phone calls.
- Host or co-host an informal gathering at your home or office where All Chicago staff members give a brief presentation and invite involvement and/or contributions.
- Send annual appeal letters (November) with personal notes to people in your network who might be interested in making a contribution.
- Work with All Chicago staff to identify 3-5 companies where you can make an introduction.
- Work with All Chicago staff to identify 3-5 people you know who might be interested in serving as Ambassadors or on an All Chicago committee.

All Chicago Staff Support:

- We make it easy for you to make a difference! Our staff are skilled at working with busy professionals who don't have much time in their schedule.
- We'll equip you with talking points and tools to effectively communicate All Chicago's positive impact on homelessness.
- We'll work with you to identify who within your network would be most appropriate to introduce to All Chicago.

See reverse for more info!

- We'll tailor our support and reminders to your style, keeping you organized and on track by maintaining your personalized plan and lists.
